GET YOUR NPDB SELF-QUERY

www.npdb.hrsa.gov
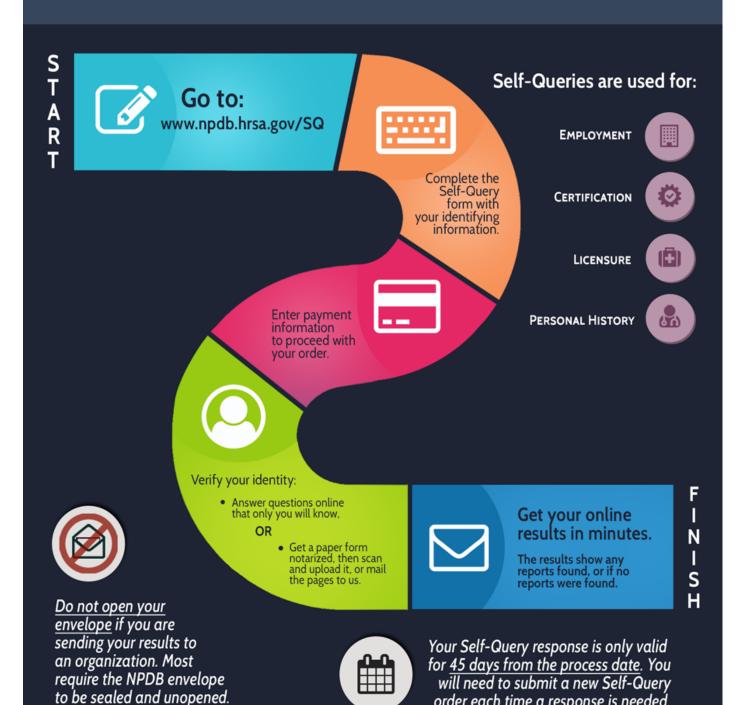

Health care professionals can find out if there is a report about them in the National Practitioner Data Bank (NPDB) by ordering a Self-Query.

START

Go to:
www.npdb.hrsa.gov/SQ

Complete the Self-Query form with your identifying information.

Enter payment information to proceed with your order.

Verify your identity:
- Answer questions online that only you will know,

OR

- Get a paper form notarized, then scan and upload it, or mail the pages to us.

Do not open your envelope if you are sending your results to an organization. Most require the NPDB envelope to be sealed and unopened.

Self-Queries are used for:

EMPLOYMENT

CERTIFICATION

LICENSURE

PERSONAL HISTORY

FINISH

Get your online results in minutes.

The results show any reports found, or if no reports were found.

Your Self-Query response is only valid for 45 days from the process date. You will need to submit a new Self-Query order each time a response is needed.

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

HRSA Health Workforce